Notes to Applicants

1. Background and Purpose

As stated in the "Government Response to the Consumer Council's Report on the Supermarket Industry" published by the then Trade and Industry Bureau in 1995, local major supermarket operators had initially accepted the Hong Kong Council of Social Service's proposal of providing free delivery service (the service) for persons with disabilities. In following up this proposal, the then Health and Welfare Bureau and Social Welfare Department obtained consent from Park'N Shop Limited (Park'N Shop) and Wellcome Company Limited (Wellcome) to provide the service.

2. Eligibility

The following four groups of persons with disabilities and their families/carers are eligible for the service:

- (1) persons with severe physical disability (including those suffering from cerebral palsy/using wheelchairs or walking aids);
- (2) persons with severe low vision or totally blind;
- (3) persons with severe intellectual disability (IQ 40 or below); and
- (4) persons with autistim.

3. Application Forms

Application Forms are obtainable at:

- 3.1 Rehabilitation service units and special schools that provide services for the four groups of persons mentioned in paragraph 2 above;
- 3.2 Social Security Field Units and Integrated Family Service Centres of the Social Welfare Department; or
- 3.3 Labour and Welfare Bureau website (www.lwb.gov.hk).

4. Application Procedures

- 4.1 Applicants must be persons with disabilities or their family members/carers. They are required to complete Parts A and C of the Application Form. Applicants who are family members or carers of persons with disabilities are required to complete Part B as well. If an order is placed by the family members or carers of persons with disabilities, the delivery address should be the same as the residential address indicated in Part A of the Application Form.
- 4.2 Persons with disabilities who are receiving rehabilitation services such as those provided by special schools, day activity centres and residential homes should ask the officers-in-charge of the respective agencies to complete the "Letter of Certification" at Annex I and submit with the application photocopies of the personal identification listed in Part A of the Application Form for the purpose of certifying the information given in the Application Form.
- 4.3 Persons with disabilities who are not receiving any rehabilitation services should:
  - 4.3.1 complete the "Letter of Authorisation" at Annex II to authorise the Rehabilitation Division of the Labour and Welfare Bureau to verify the information provided in the Application Form, and attach to the Application Form photocopies of their personal identification and relevant supporting documents as listed in Part A of the Application Form and the "Letter of Authorisation" respectively; or
  - 4.3.2 attach to the Application Form photocopies of the personal identification listed in Part A of the Application Form, and a valid medical certificate<sup>1</sup> to prove that the person indicated in Part A belongs to one of the four groups of persons mentioned in paragraph 2 above.

There is no standard format for medical certificates. The sample in Annex III may be used as reference.

4.4 The Application Form together with the documents listed in 4.2 or 4.3 above should be mailed to the following address:

Rehabilitation Division Labour and Welfare Bureau

11/F, West Wing, Central Government Offices

2 Tim Mei Avenue, Tamar, Hong Kong

5. Rights and Responsibilities

5.1 The Rehabilitation Division of the Labour and Welfare Bureau will examine and verify the applications and refer eligible applications to the respective supermarket operators for further action. The Labour and Welfare Bureau reserves the right to reject any application in case the applicant provides any false or incorrect information, or in case the eligibility of the applicant is in doubt.

5.2 Successful applicants must strictly observe the terms and conditions laid down by the respective supermarket operators for the use of the service.

5.3 Free delivery service will be provided by the supermarkets, but the operators reserve the right to amend the terms and conditions relating to the service.
